

主旨: my views in your policy

I agree government view on the population policy for Hong Kong in near future. It is popular for over the world that 65 is the common age for retire. It can both save the man power and people can work for country for longer.

David